DAUGHTERS OF THE UTAH PIONEERS
JUAB COMPANY – SUNBEAM CAMP

The Daughters of the Utah Pioneers Sunbeam Camp in Eureka is currently looking for more members.

We meet once a month (second Wednesday of each month) at the L. D. S. Church at 11:00 am for a short meeting with a lesson, followed by a light lunch. The lessons are very informative and fun to listen to.

To become a full member, you must have a direct-line Utah pioneer ancestor who came to or were born in the State of Deseret/Utah Territory before the completion of the Transcontinental Railroad on May 10, 1869, from whom eligibility is derived. Dues are $25.00 for the year.

Women who do not qualify for membership as Daughters of Utah Pioneers are welcome to participate in a DUP Camp where they reside. They are called "Associates of Daughters of Utah Pioneers" and may participate in all activities of the organization. They cannot hold an elected office but may hold other positions in the Camp. They may write and give pioneer histories that may be submitted to the International History Department. Dues are the same as regular members.

If you are interested in becoming a member or an associate member of the Sunbeam Camp, please reach out to Patricia Bigler, Secretary 801-372-0723 or Leigh Grimstead, Registrar 435-322-0032 to get an application.

Organization of Daughters of Utah Pioneers

Daughters of Utah Pioneers (“DUP”) was organized April 11, 1901, under the leadership of Annie Taylor Hyde (daughter of John Taylor) in Salt Lake City. Forty-six women, all of pioneer descent, gathered in her home for the first meeting. At the meeting, Annie Taylor Hyde stated that she “... felt deeply impressed with the importance and desirability of the children of pioneers becoming associated together, in some kind of organization which would have for its object the cementing together in bonds of friendship and love the descendants” of the early pioneers. The first formal meeting was held 21 September 1901, although the association was not incorporated until 2 April 1925. The constitution of DUP states that the purpose of the organization is “to perpetuate the names and achievements of the men, women, and children who were the pioneers in founding this commonwealth by preserving old landmarks, marking historical places, collecting artifacts and histories, establishing a library of historical matter and securing manuscripts, photographs, maps, and all such data as shall aid in perfecting a record of the Utah pioneers.”

The organization is administered by an International Board whose headquarters are located in the Pioneer Memorial Museum at 300 North Main in Salt Lake City. Besides the International Board, DUP is organized into companies that have a presiding board that oversees the activities of camps (ten members or more) in a geographic area. DUP consists of 185 companies overseeing the activities of 1,050 camps in 15 states and Canada with a total living membership of 21,451. The organization is open to any woman who is “over the age of 18 years, of good character, and a lineal or legally adopted descendant of an ancestor who came to Utah before the completion of the railroad on May 10, 1869.

The International Board sponsors many activities and projects. Each year it sponsors the publication of historical material which has been used as lesson material in the camps for that year into a hardbound book. At the present time there have been eight multi-volume sets of books published: Heart Throbs of the West; Treasures of Pioneer History; Our Pioneer Heritage; An Enduring Legacy; Chronicles of Courage, Pioneer Pathways, Museum Memories and Tales of Triumph. A four-volume set of women’s histories called Pioneer Women of Faith and Fortitude containing the stories of 8,000 women was published in 1998. They have also published many historical pamphlets, cookbooks, and a Pioneer Song Book. DUP preserves landmarks, marks historical places and events, and annually commemorates the entrance of the first company of Utah pioneers into the Salt Lake Valley with a Days of ’47 Scholarship Pageant in conjunction with the Days of ’47 committee. County organizations have published numerous county histories which, in some cases, are the only local histories available. There are over 86 DUP museums where pioneer artifacts are displayed. Histories and photos are filed and available for families to purchase that are operated and maintained by the members. The largest repository is in Salt Lake City.

As early as 1903, the Daughters of Utah Pioneers were interested in gathering and displaying relics and artifacts they had collected. During this period, many items were displayed in various locations throughout Salt Lake City. In 1928, the DUP began an official campaign to raise money for the construction of their own museum. Groundbreaking for the museum took place on 25 March 1946. After many complications, the museum was dedicated in July of 1950. An additional structure, a carriage house, was made possible in 1973 through a donation made by Sara Marie Jensen Van Dyke. In January of 2000, a new addition to the Carriage House was dedicated, and the restored 1902 “Roosevelt” fire engine was placed in it. It is called the Fire Engine Hall. In December 2002, the daughters placed a monument on the east side of their museum in Salt Lake City entitled “Ever Pressing Forward – Lest We Forget” showing a pioneer mother and son looking back on a small daughter’s grave as they press on the trail. This is a motto they would like every person with Utah pioneer heritage to incorporate into their lives.

IMPORTANT ELECTION ANNOUNCEMENT !!

All but one of the candidates filed for the county races are registered Republicans, meaning that most of the contests will be decided in the Republican primary on June 23, 2026. Because Utah conducts closed primaries for partisan offices, only voters registered as Republicans by the statewide deadline of April 1, 2026 may participate in the primary. Voters who wish to check or update their party affiliation can do so through the state's official voter registration system at vote.utah.gov or their county clerk's office.

Free Little Library

On January 17, 2026 Current council members Raeleen Maxfield, Kimberly Clements and also former Council member Scott Pugh, met with Pack 2019 Arrow of Light Den, out of Orem Utah, to install a community Little Library.

The cute little Library was installed so the pack could get a merit badge. The members of the pack assisted with the building of the Little Library and the books were donated by the pack and by the scout families. The Little Library is a way to exchange books in the community.
